IT'S TIME TO END THE WAR IN AFGHANISTAN

Canadian soldiers and Afghan civilians continue to die in a war that gets worse with each new deployment of NATO troops.

- There was a 40% increase in civilians killed in 2008.
- Reconstruction can never keep up with the destruction. More than 100 tons of bombs are dropped by NATO each month.
- Women's rights are not on the agenda of the Afghan government which just passed a law severely curtailing women's freedom.
- The Canadian Forces still transfer Afghan detainees to torture.
- The war has cost Canadians more than $18 Billion and counting.
- Polls in Canada show a clear majority want the war to end before the scheduled removal date of 2011.

Canadians say - no to torture - no to war
Bring the troops home now!
